HILDUR GUÐNADÓTTIR

An artist who defies classification and disregards traditional generic boundaries, Icelandic cellist, singer and composer Hildur Guðnadóttir has earned a unique place on the contemporary music scene thanks to her virtuosity, versatility and originality. Her work scoring the likes of Chernobyl, TÁR, and Joker led to unprecedented international recognition, as she became the first female composer ever to win the Academy, Golden Globe and BAFTA awards in the same season.
